

LandTeam Surveyors Organise and Participate in Regional Seminar

The Southern Group of the Institution of Surveyors NSW – Seminar at the Goulburn Club, Goulburn on Friday 28 June, 2013. LandTeam Surveyors Greg Goodman (Southern Group Chairman), David Lofberg (Treasurer), Paul Reilly (Secretary), Bob Van der Zypen (ISNSW Representative) and Mark Asper (Committee Member) have organised a one day seminar at the Goulburn Club with the theme “The Challenge for Cadastral Surveyors – What Will be Doing in Five Years Time? Is Our Traditional Role Under Threat? Maintaining our Role and Relevance in a Digital Future.” Some 100 participants registered for the day to hear a range of speakers on topics such as:-

Land & Engineering Surveyors, Civil & Structural Engineers,
Town Planners, Project Managers, Infrastructure Co-ordination

Powering your development

- The Surveying Demand Study
- Report on LPI privatisation
- Surveyors underpinning NSW growth
- Shaping the cadastral infrastructure for a digital future
- Is neo-cadastral surveying on your smart phone feasible
- From custodians of the cadastre to custodians of the cadastral database
- What are we worth as a Surveyor
- If that's what you are worth then how do you invoice and collect it?

Thanks once again to LandTeam IMS Co-ordinator Kathy Willetts who does much of the behind the scenes organisation for the Southern Group seminars.
